

The Tam Institute for Jewish Studies presents

After Paris: Antisemitism, Jewish-Muslim Relations, and the Future of French Jews

a scholarly forum featuring

MAUD MANDEL

Brown University

SAMUEL GHILES-MEILHAC

University of Paris VIII, Saint-Denis

Monday, March 28
7:30pm

Oxford Presentation Auditorium
311 Oxford Road Building
1390 Oxford Road
Atlanta 30307

For information about visitor parking, visit <http://tinyurl.com/zl6rnca>

Join us for a reception following the lecture

This program is made possible by the Waxman Support Fund, which promotes scholarly research, teaching, and public programming at Emory on topics related to antisemitism, the Holocaust, and relations between Jews and other communities.

Cosponsored by Department of French & Italian, Department of German Studies, Department of History, Department of Middle Eastern & South Asian Studies, Department of Religion, European Studies Project, Graduate Division of Religion, and Institute of African Studies